

Dear John,

We - members of the lattice field theory community - are following your progress closely, thanks to Julia's great efforts to keep everybody updated via the Caring-Bridge website. Our thoughts and good wishes are with you during this particularly difficult phase of your recovery. We know you as a person of great energy, determination, discipline, and perseverance. Although the amount of energy you need now may seem humanly impossible, we all know that you have been able to accomplish exceptional things in the past. In order to help you keep your spirits up, we send you this card filled with our admiration. We wish you all the energy you need to make your next step towards recovery. We miss you very much!

With the greatest respect,

Members of the Lattice Field Theory Community
